INTRODUCTION	The present claim pertains to damage to portable toilet units belonging to M/s Sara Plast Private Limited at JJC Plot No. B-6/4, Near Power Transformer, Okhla Industrial Area, Phase-II, New Delhi. The insured had undertaken portable toilet service work for DUSIB at various locations, and the subject location forms part of the location records made available. A fire incident was reported at the said site during the currency of the above policy, resulting in damage to portable toilet units installed there. The insurer appointed us to inspect the site and assess the loss. The claim was intimated to the insurer and survey was conducted accordingly.
OCCURRENCE OF INCIDENT	As per the claim form, the date and time of loss was 06.04.2026 at about 11:00 PM. The NCR issued by P.S. Okhla Industrial Area, South-East Delhi, dated 07.04.2026, records occurrence during the period from 06.04.2026 23:00 hrs to 07.04.2026 04:00 hrs at B-6/4, Okhla Phase-II, New Delhi, and names Vinod Kumar as complainant. The loss was intimated to police, as also marked in the claim form.
SURVEY DETAILS	We visited the site on 08.04.2026 and carried out inspection. During the course of survey, the affected portable toilet units were found extensively damaged due to fire. The remnants were in burnt, melted, deformed and charred condition, indicating exposure to high temperature. No evidence of external impact other than fire was observed at the time of survey. Statements were obtained from the persons present at site and photographs were taken. The inspection was carried out in presence of site representative.
EXTENT OF LOSS	The claim form states that 10 nos. of portable toilets were damaged costing ₹5,50,000 in total. The ILA also records that approximately 10 portable toilet units at the site were completely burnt, melted and deformed, with loss of structural integrity, rendering them totally unusable. In view of the physical condition noticed during survey, the affected units are treated as total loss.
CAUSE OF LOSS	Based on the available records, site observations and statements of concerned persons, the damage is attributable to a fire incident at the insured location. However, the exact cause and point of origin of the fire could not be conclusively established from the material made available at the time of survey. The claim form describes the toilets as burnt by some unknown cause, and the NCR supports the reporting of the incident to police.
ADEQUACY OF SUM INSURED

	Sum Insured: INR 35915000.00/- Value at Risk (VAR): INR 35915000.00/- Under-Insurance Percentage: 63.45% To check the adequacy of Sum Insured, it is imperative to arrive at the value at risk of affected items as on date of loss. The Sum Insured is = Rs 3,59,15,000.00 Due to non-availability of CA certified latest P&L and Balance sheet of FY 2025-2026, here we consider the last available CA certified P&L and Balance sheet of FY 2024-2025 for the assessment purpose. As per CA certified P&L and Balance sheet of FY 2024-2025, the total value of Inventories as on 31st March 2025 was Rs. 5,66,46,049.00 Therefore, Total Value of Inventories/ Value at Risk = Rs. 5,66,46,049.00 Now, Available Sum Insured = Rs 3,59,15,000.00 In view of above, underinsurance is applicable and the calculation is as under: = (1- S.I/V.A.R) x 100 = (1-3,59,15,000.00/5,66,46,049.00) x 100 = 36.60% In other Words Value At Risk is covered for 63.40 % and an under insurance of 36.60 % is applicable. The policy provides for a waiver of under insurance up to 15%. However, in the present case, under insurance works out to 36.60%, which exceeds the permissible waiver limit.
SALVAGE	Salvage Value: INR 0.00/- No salvage recovered or retained by insured on net loss basis.
INSURED'S CLAIM	The Insured have claimed of Rs. 5,50,000.00 towards cost of the damaged/burnt items, loss occurred on dt 06.04.2026. The valuation documents show a CA-certified per-unit cost of ₹55,038.52941 for a "Spartan Toilet." On that basis, the cost of 10 units works out to ₹5,50,385.29 as follows: However, the insured's claim form restricts the claim to ₹5,50,000 for 10 damaged portable toilets. Since the claim cannot exceed the amount claimed by the insured, the loss has been conservatively assessed at the claimed figure of ₹5,50,000/-. Being based upon our physical inspection, discreet enquiry and market research as well as documentary evidences as submitted by the insured in support of their claim, the loss has been assessed as under as a fair & reasonable measure of indemnity: -

BREACH OF WARRANTY	Warranty Compliance: Warranties Complied With It is observed during the course of our survey that the damaged materials were stored in the open area without adequate protective covering, which is in violation of standard policy warranties requiring proper storage and protection of insured property. The said act constitutes a breach of warranty under the policy conditions. However, considering the nature of loss and subject to the discretion of the insurer, the claim may be settled on a non-standard basis.
REMARKS	The assessment has been carried out based on the documents submitted by the insured, including claim form, valuation certificate, DUSIB work order and site observations. The damaged items are considered as portable toilet units installed at site and forming part of the insured property.
FINAL OPINION	In our opinion, the loss assessed at ₹3,43,700.00/- is fair and reasonable on the basis of the claim lodged, the CA-supported valuation material, and the physical condition of the damaged units observed at site, subject always to the full terms and conditions of the policy and final approval of the insurers.

Issued without prejudice.
